Pizza Pizza Scholarship Program

Pizza Pizza embraces the communities we serve, especially when it comes to helping serve local communities. We are committed to providing valuable tools to help ensure local communities are able to thrive and continue to support worthy causes. We cannot do this without the support and commitment to service from local community members who donate their time and effort to better their communities. Pizza Pizza's scholarship will be presented to an individual who demonstrates academic excellence and is dedicated to the positively contributing to their community's overall well-being. We want to recognize a student who shares the same passion we have in an effort to assist the community, health and education programs achieve their goals.

Please provide an essay demonstrating the commitment to their community and post-secondary education.
