Non-registered shareholders who receive these materials from their intermediaries should follow the instructions on the voting instruction form provided by their intermediaries with respect to the procedures to be followed for voting at the Meeting.

The Management Information Circular and this Notice of Meeting are available at <http://www.pizzapizza.ca/investors/financial-reports>.

Only persons shown on the register of shareholders and non-objecting beneficial shareholders who have appointed themselves to be present at the Meeting as holders of record as at the close of business on April 15, 2016, or their proxy holders, will be entitled to attend the Meeting and vote.

Non-Registered Shareholders (Beneficial Owners)

You are a “non-registered shareholder” or “beneficial owner” if your shares are held on your behalf through an intermediary or nominee (for example, a bank, trust company, securities broker, clearing agency or other institution).

Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners (NOBOs)

Under applicable securities legislation, a beneficial owner of securities is a “non-objecting beneficial owner” (or “NOBO”) if such beneficial owner has or is deemed to have provided instructions to the intermediary holding the securities on such beneficial owner’s behalf not objecting to the intermediary disclosing ownership information about the beneficial owner in accordance with said legislation.

If you are a NOBO, the Company has sent these materials directly to you, and your name and address and information about your holdings of Common Shares have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities legislation from the intermediary holding on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Company (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions.

If you are a NOBO and your name has been provided to CST, you can vote your shares by attending the Meeting in person by appointing yourself as proxyholder or by appointing someone else as proxyholder to attend the Meeting and vote your Common Shares for you, by completing your voting instruction form and returning it by mail, hand, fax or email delivery in accordance with the instructions set forth therein, or by internet by visiting the website shown on your voting instruction form (refer to your control number shown on your voting instruction form) and following the online voting instructions, by telephone, or by scanning the QR code on the voting instruction form with your mobile device.

Objecting Beneficial Owners (OBOs)

Under applicable securities legislation, a beneficial owner is an “objecting beneficial owner” (or “OBO”) if such beneficial owner has or is deemed to have provided instructions to the intermediary holding the securities on such beneficial owner’s behalf objecting to the intermediary disclosing ownership information about the beneficial owner in accordance with said legislation.

If you are an OBO, you received these materials from your intermediary or its agent (such as Broadridge), and your intermediary is required to seek your instructions as to the manner in which to exercise the voting rights attached to your Common Shares. The Company has agreed to pay for intermediaries to deliver to OBOs the proxy-related materials and the relevant voting instruction form. The voting instruction form that is sent to an OBO by the intermediary or its agent should contain an explanation as to how you can exercise the voting rights attached to your Common Shares, including how to attend and vote directly at the Meeting. Please provide your voting instructions to your intermediary as specified in the enclosed voting instruction form.

Non-Registered Shareholders can only exercise their rights as beneficial owners of Shares through CDS or a participant in the CDS depository service. This means that in order for Non-Registered Shareholders to exercise their right to vote their Shares at a meeting of the Company, they must provide voting instructions to CDS as the Registered Shareholder.

If Non-Registered Shareholders wish to vote their Shares they must carefully review and follow the voting instructions provided by their Intermediary.

Delivery of Voting Instructions by Non-Registered Shareholders

Applicable regulatory policy requires Intermediaries to seek voting instructions from Non-Registered Shareholders in advance of Shareholder meetings. Every Intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Non-Registered Shareholders in order to ensure their Shares are voted at the Meeting. Generally, Non-Registered Shareholders who receive meeting materials will be given either:

(a) a form of proxy which has already been signed by the Intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) and which is restricted as to the number of Shares beneficially owned by the Non-Registered Shareholder but which is otherwise not completed. This form of proxy need not be signed by the Non-Registered Shareholder. In this case, the Non-Registered Shareholder who wishes to submit a proxy should complete the rest of the form of proxy and deliver the proxy in accordance with the instructions provided by the Intermediary; or

(b) a voting instruction form which must be completed and signed by the Non-Registered Shareholder in accordance with the directions on the voting instruction form and returned to the Intermediary or its service company. In some cases, the completion of the voting instruction form by telephone, the internet, or facsimile is permitted. The purpose of these procedures is to permit Non-Registered Shareholders to direct the voting of the Shares that they beneficially own. These procedures do not permit a Non-Registered Shareholder to vote Shares in person at a Meeting.

Voting in Person by Non-Registered Shareholders

A Non-Registered Shareholder who receives a form of proxy or a voting instruction form and wishes to vote at the Meeting in person should strike out the names of the persons designated in the form of proxy and insert the Non-Registered Shareholder's name in the blank space provided or, in the case of a voting instruction form, follow the corresponding directions on the form. In either case, Non-Registered Holders should carefully follow the instructions of their Intermediary, including those regarding when and where the proxy or proxy authorization form is to be delivered.

Non-Registered Shareholders and Notice-And-Access

In accordance with National Instrument 54-101, Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer ("NI 54-101"), the Company is sending proxy-related materials in connection with the Meeting directly to non-objecting beneficial owners of Shares. In case of objecting beneficial owners of Shares ("OBOs"), the proxy-related materials, will be sent by and through the applicable Intermediaries.

These securityholder materials are being sent to both registered and non-registered owners of the securities. If you are a non-registered owner, and the Company or its agent has sent these materials directly to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of securities, have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the Intermediary holding on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Company (and not the Intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions.

The Company does not intend to pay for the Intermediaries to forward proxy-related materials in connection with the Meeting to OBOs pursuant to NI 54-101 and Form 54-101F7 – Request for Voting Instructions Made by Intermediary. Therefore, OBOs will not receive the materials unless the applicable Intermediary assumes the cost of delivery.

The Company is not sending proxy-related materials in connection with the Meeting to the Registered Shareholders or Non-Registered Shareholders using notice-and-access delivery procedures defined under NI 54-101 and National Instrument 51-102, Continuous Disclosure Obligations.

APPOINTMENT OF PROXIES

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors of the Company. A Registered Shareholder who wishes to appoint some other person to represent him/her at the Meeting may do so by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another proper form of proxy. A Non-Registered Shareholder who wishes to appoint some other person to represent him/her at the Meeting should follow the instructions provided by their Intermediary for regarding such appointments. In either case, the person appointed need not be a Shareholder of the Company.

DEPOSIT OF PROXY

To be valid, executed forms of proxy must be deposited with CST Trust Company, Attention: Proxy Department, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1 or cast your vote online at www.cstvotemyproxy.com before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on May 20, 2016 or not less than 48 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. The Chair of the Meeting retains the discretion to accept proxies filed subsequently. Non-Registered Shareholders must follow the instructions provided by their Intermediary regarding when and where their form of proxy or voting instruction form should be delivered.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

A Registered Shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke the proxy by depositing a written instrument, executed in the same manner as a proxy, with CST Trust Company, Attention: Proxy Department, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1 at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or by depositing the instrument with the Chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. A proxy may also be revoked in any other manner permitted by law.

VOTING OF SHARES

Every matter to be dealt with at the Meeting shall, unless a poll vote is demanded, be decided by a show of hands on which every person present and entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote. Persons entitled to vote are Registered Shareholders and proxy holders representing Registered Shareholders. On any poll the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy will vote or withhold from voting Shares in respect of which they are appointed by proxy in accordance with the instructions of the Registered Shareholder indicated thereon. In the absence of such instructions with respect to a particular matter described in the enclosed form in the enclosed form of proxy or in this Information Circular, the Shares will be voted "FOR" each of the matters to be voted on by Shareholders.

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting, and with respect to any other matter which may properly come before the Meeting. In the event that amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting are properly brought before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matter or business. At the time of printing this Information Circular, neither the Administrator, the directors of the Company, nor the directors and officers of the Managing General Partner knew of any such amendment, variation or other matter.

QUORUM

A quorum for the Meeting consists of two or more individuals entitled to vote at the Meeting present in person either holding personally or representing by proxy not less in aggregate than 10% of the votes attached to all outstanding Shares entitled to vote at the Meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the Meeting, the Meeting will be adjourned to a day not less than 14 days later, at such time and place as determined by the Chair of the Meeting. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, the Shareholders present either in person or by proxy shall form a quorum, and any business may be brought before or dealt with at such an adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling that meeting.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Only registered holders of Shares as at the close of business on April 15, 2016 (the “Record Date”), who either personally attend the meeting or who have completed and delivered a form of proxy in the manner described herein, shall be entitled to vote or to have their Shares voted at the Meeting.

Name	Number of Shares	Percentage of Shares Outstanding

Director Election and Majority Voting Policy

The Company's board of directors believes that each of its members should carry the confidence and support of the Shareholders. Accordingly, the Company has a majority voting policy which was adopted in connection with establishment of the Company in 2012 and amended in 2014. To this end, the form of proxy for the vote at the Meeting enables Shareholders to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting, separately for each nominee for election as a director. If at the Meeting, with respect to any particular nominee, the nominee is not elected by at least a majority (50%+1) of the total votes cast with respect to his or her election then for purposes of the Company's policy, the nominee shall be considered not to have received the support of the Shareholders, even though duly elected as a matter of corporate law. A person elected as a director who is considered under this test not to have the confidence of Shareholders will immediately submit his or her resignation to the board of directors of the Company and the board of directors of the Managing General Partner. The board of directors will promptly, and within 90 days after the relevant shareholders' meeting, consider the director's resignation and make a decision whether to accept it. The board of directors will accept the resignation, which will become effective on acceptance, unless it is determined that there are exceptional circumstances relating to the composition of the board of directors or the voting results that should delay the acceptance of the resignation, or in very rare cases, justify rejecting it. Any director who tenders his or her resignation will not participate in the meeting at which the resignation is considered. If the resignation is accepted, subject to any applicable law, the board may leave the resultant vacancy unfilled until the next annual general meeting, fill the vacancy through the appointment of a new director whom the board considers to merit the confidence of the shareholders, or call a special meeting of shareholders at which there will be presented one or more nominees to fill any vacancy or vacancies. The board will issue a press release disclosing the reasons for accepting or rejecting the resignation.

Other Matters

As of the date hereof, neither the Administrator, the directors of the Company nor the directors and officers of the Managing General Partner, know of any matter which will be brought before the Meeting, other than those referred to herein.

STATEMENT OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

National Instrument 58-101 of the Canadian Securities Administrators ("NI 58-101") requires every reporting issuer in Canada to disclose on an annual basis its approach to corporate governance with reference to the criteria outlined in NI 58-101. The Company's assessment of its approach to corporate governance is summarized in Appendix "A" to this Information Circular.

Role of the Directors

The Company does not conduct any active business. The role of the directors of the Company is primarily to act on behalf of the Company as sole limited partner of the Partnership and 79.6% shareholder of the Managing General Partner and to manage the limited affairs of the Company. The Company has delegated to the Partnership under the amended and restated administration agreement dated December 31, 2012 (the "Administration Agreement"), summarized below, certain administrative duties that would otherwise fall upon the directors of the Company.

The Partnership owns the trademarks and trade names used by PPL in its Pizza Pizza and Pizza 73 restaurants. The Partnership licenses that intellectual property to PPL in consideration for payments under separate license and royalty agreements. The Partnership's business is managed by the Managing General Partner, under the direction of the board of directors.

Administration Agreement

Under the Administration Agreement, the Partnership has agreed to provide or arrange for the provision of administrative services to the Company. With respect to the Company, the administrative services provided by the Partnership will include, without limitation, those necessary to: (i) ensure compliance by the Company with continuous disclosure obligations under applicable securities legislation, including the preparation of financial statements relating thereto; (ii) provide investor relations services; (iii) provide or cause to be provided to Shareholders all information to which Shareholders are entitled, including relevant information with respect to income taxes; (iv) call and hold all meetings of Shareholders and distribute required materials, including notices of meetings and information circulars, in respect of all such meetings; (v) provide for the calculation of dividends to Shareholders; (vi) administer certain loans; and (vii) meet general accounting, bookkeeping and administrative needs. The Partnership is obligated to pay all expenses incurred by it and attributable to the exercise of its duties in the administration of the Company and no fee is payable to the Partnership for the services provided by it to the Company under the Administration Agreement.

Role of the Partnership in Corporate Governance

Since the Company does not carry on an active business and since the responsibility for the administration and management of the day-to-day operations of the Company has been delegated to the Partnership, many of the governance matters addressed in the NI 58-101 are matters dealt with by the Partnership, through its managing general partner, Pizza Pizza GP Inc. As the managing general partner of the Partnership, Pizza Pizza GP Inc. has the authority to manage the business and affairs of the Partnership, including the authority to carry out the Partnership's obligations under the Administration Agreement. Thus, the Company is managed and administered by the Partnership which, in turn, is managed by the Managing General Partner. Certain matters relating to the conduct of the business and affairs of the Managing General Partner are provided for in the amended and restated governance agreement dated December 31, 2012 between, among others, the Company, PPL and the Managing General Partner (the "Governance Agreement"). PPL and the Company are, respectively, 20.4% and 79.6% holders of the common shares of the Managing General Partner. The relevant terms of the Governance Agreement are described below.

Governance Agreement

Under the Governance Agreement, five of the directors of the Managing General Partner are nominated by the Company each of whom may be a director of the Company and must be an independent director within the meaning of National Instrument 52-110 of the Canadian Securities Administrations and, for so long as PPL holds a 10% or higher interest in the Company, whether directly or indirectly through its Class B and Class D Units of the Partnership which are exchangeable for Shares, up to three of the directors of the Managing General Partner are nominated by PPL. PPL agreed with the Company to allow the appointment of one additional Company nominee to the Managing General Partner board on a temporary basis to facilitate board transition, succession planning and orientation activities through the annual budgeting and financial statement and disclosure review process. In addition, the Governance Agreement provides for the establishment of an Audit Committee and a Governance Committee of the Company, each of which are comprised solely of nominees of the Company.

The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the Company's, the Managing General Partner's and the Partnership's financial reporting, accounting systems, internal controls and liaising with external auditors. The Company's annual information form includes additional information on the Audit Committee in the section entitled "Audit Committee Information", including the Audit Committee's charter and composition and the relevant education and experience of its members.

The Governance Committee’s responsibilities have been assumed by the Board of the Company, and include, among other things, overseeing the operations of the Company and the Partnership, addressing any conflicts of interest between the Company, the Partnership and PPL, annually reviewing the operations and performance of PPL and for assisting the board in establishing its approach to corporate governance issues and advising the board in filling vacancies. The corporate governance practices of the Company and the Managing General Partner are discussed in Appendix “A” to this Information Circular by reference to NI 58-101.

Certain administrative services are performed by the Partnership and/or the Managing General Partner, on behalf of the Company. APPENDIX “B”
PIZZA PIZZA ROYALTY CORP.
MANDATE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business and affairs of Pizza Pizza Royalty Corp. (the “Corporation”) are subject to the control and authority of the board of directors (the “Board”). In doing so, the Board acts at all time with a view to the best interests of the Corporation. The Board endeavors to enhance shareholder value on a sustainable basis and in a manner that recognizes the interests of other stakeholders.

1. ACCOUNTABILITY

The Board is responsible to shareholders.

2. ROLE

The role of the Board is to focus on governance and stewardship of the business carried on by the Corporation’s subsidiaries, including Pizza Pizza Royalty Limited Partnership (the “Partnership”) and its managing general partner, Pizza Pizza GP Inc. (“Pizza Pizza GP”). The Board will develop the Corporation’s budget, capital plan and dividend policy in conjunction with its subsidiaries’ boards. In fulfilling its oversight role, the Board will regularly review the strategic plans and budgets developed and provided by Pizza Pizza Limited (“PPL”) so that the Board is responsive to the changing business environment in which the Corporation and PPL operate.

The Corporation owns, through the Partnership, the trade-marks, trade names and other intellectual property and associated rights (collectively, the “Rights”) used in connection with Pizza Pizza and Pizza 73 restaurants in Canada that are operated by PPL and its franchisees and operators. The Rights have been licenced to PPL pursuant to licence and royalty agreements (the “Licence and Royalty Agreements”), in consideration of which the Partnership is entitled to receive a royalty payment based on the system sales of a defined pool of restaurants. Accordingly, the financial performance of the Corporation and its subsidiaries is dependent on the effective operation and management of the PPL restaurant system, and on PPL’s performance of its obligations under the Licence and Royalty Agreements and the other related agreements between PPL and the Corporation and its subsidiaries (the “PPL Agreements”). These obligations include the timely provision of financial and other information to the Corporation and its subsidiaries to enable the Corporation to develop its budget, capital plan and dividend policy, to monitor PPL’s compliance with the PPL Agreements and to satisfy the Corporation’s continuous disclosure and other obligations as a reporting issuer under applicable securities laws.

None of the Corporation, the Partnership and Pizza Pizza GP holds a direct or indirect equity interest in PPL and is not otherwise entitled to control or direct the PPL business. Consequently, the role of the Board is focused on monitoring the business of PPL and advising PPL as to the Corporation’s interests in the performance of that business (including under the terms of the PPL Agreements).

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

- Establish a dividend policy, and declare and effect any payment of dividends.

(b) Review Strategic Goals, Performance Objectives and Operational Policies

- Review the strategic and operational objectives, risk management plans and budgets developed by PPL, advise and consult with PPL as to the interests of the Corporation in these plans and budgets, and establish appropriate strategies for the Corporation in the context of its relationship with PPL.
- Act as a liaison with PPL, with respect to the development and execution of PPL's corporate strategies and their involvement with, and impact on, the Corporation.
- Oversee the operations of the Corporation and the Partnership, including payments to be made by PPL to the Partnership under the Licence and Royalty Agreements.
- Consider, and make a determination on, any matter involving a conflict of interest between PPL and the Corporation and its subsidiaries (including any transaction with PPL or any of its affiliates under the PPL Agreements) or other related party transactions.
- Annually review:
 - a) the performance of PPL and its management team, and PPL's compliance with the PPL Agreements, and
 - b) adjustments to be made pursuant to the Licence and Royalty Agreements.
- Set targets against which to measure the Partnership's performance.

(c) Delegate Management Authority

- Supervise the delegation of authority to manage and supervise the business of the Corporation and its subsidiaries and decisions regarding the ordinary course of business and operations.
- Determine what, if any, limitations may be required in the exercise of the authority delegated to management of Pizza Pizza GP or PPL.

- Understand, assess and monitor the principal risks associated with the Corporation's investments, including those affecting PPL and its business.
- Monitor performance of the Corporation and its subsidiaries against their established budgets and capital plans.

(e) Develop Board Processes

- Develop procedures relating to the conduct of the Board's business and the fulfillment of the Board's responsibilities.
- Develop the Board's approach to corporate governance issues, fill vacancies on the Board and periodically review the composition and effectiveness of the directors and the contribution of individual directors.

(f) Education of Directors

- Take steps to satisfy itself that:
 - a) New directors are given proper orientation to the Corporation, PPL and their respective subsidiaries and their responsibilities and duties as directors, and
 - b) Pizza Pizza GP is responsive to any request from directors for continuing education opportunities.

(g) Compensation of Board Members

- Review, and determine from time to time, the compensation to be paid to directors and to members of board committees.

4. QUALIFICATIONS OF DIRECTORS

Directors are expected to have the highest personal and professional ethics and values and be committed to advancing the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders. They are also expected to possess skills and competencies in areas that are relevant to the Corporation's activities and that enhance the ability of the Board to effectively oversee the business and affairs of the Corporation and its subsidiaries.

A majority of the Board must be independent. The term "independent" shall have the meaning given to it in National Instrument 52-110 - Audit Committees, as amended from time to time. The chairperson of the Board (the "Chairperson") must be an independent director. The Chairperson should act as the effective leader of the Board and ensure that the Board's agenda will enable it to successfully carry out its duties.

Each director must have an understanding of the Corporation's and its subsidiaries' principal operational and financial objectives and plans, financial position and performance. Directors must have sufficient time to carry out their duties and not assume responsibilities that would materially interfere with, or be incompatible with, Board membership. Directors, who experience a significant change in their personal circumstances, including a change in their principal occupation, are expected to advise the Chairperson of the Board and, if determined appropriate by the Board, resign from the Board.

5. MEETINGS

The Board has meetings at least once in each quarter, with additional meetings held when required. Additional meetings may be called by the Chairperson or any two directors on proper notice.

The Chairperson is primarily responsible for the agenda. Prior to each Board meeting, the Chairperson will discuss agenda items for the meeting with the senior management of Pizza Pizza GP and PPL, and other members of the Board. Any director may propose the inclusion of items on the agenda, request the presence of, or a report by any member of senior management of Pizza Pizza GP and PPL, or at any Board meeting raise subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting.

The audit committee of the Board (the “Audit Committee”) generally has meetings quarterly, with additional meetings held when required. The Governance Committee duties, assumed by the Board, generally are addressed in annual meetings, with additional meetings held when required. Meeting frequency and agendas for the Board’s standing committees may change from time to time, however, depending on opportunities or risks faced by the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The chairperson of a committee or any two members of a committee may call a committee meeting, request that an item be included on the committee’s agenda, or raise subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting. Audit Committee meetings can also be called by the Corporation’s auditor or by the Chief Financial Officer of Pizza Pizza GP.

Notice of the place, day and time of each Board or committee meeting must be served on each director or manager at least 48 hours prior to the meeting. Director or committee members may waive notice of any meeting, and attendance at a meeting without objection is deemed to be waiver of notice. The notice needs to state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting of directors or managers is being held.

- Procedures for Board meetings are determined by the Chairperson unless otherwise determined by a resolution of the Board.
- Procedures for committee meetings are determined by the committee chairperson unless otherwise determined by a resolution of the committee or the Board.
- A quorum for any Board or committee meeting shall be as required by the constating documents of the Corporation or the relevant subsidiary, as applicable.

6. DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

(a) Attendance and Participation

- Each director is expected to attend all meetings of the Board and any committee of which he or she is a member. A director who is unable to attend a meeting in person may participate by telephone or teleconference. The Board or any committee may also take action from time to time by unanimous written consent.
- In advance of each Board or committee meeting, members will receive the proposed agenda and other materials necessary to the directors' understanding of the matters to be considered. Directors are expected to spend the time needed to review the materials in advance of such meetings and to actively participate in such meetings.

(b) Service on Other Boards and Audit Committee

- The Board does not believe that its members should be prohibited from serving on the boards of other reporting issuers so long as these commitments do not materially interfere and are compatible with their ability to fulfill their duties as a member of the Board. Directors must advise the Chairperson in advance of accepting an invitation to serve on the board of another public company and, as a general rule, directors are not allowed to join a board of another public company on which two or more other directors of the Corporation serve.
- Members of the Audit Committee may not serve on the audit committees of more than two other public companies without the prior approval of the Board.

(c) Access to Independent Advisors

- The Board and any committee may at any time retain outside financial, legal or other advisors at the expense of the Corporation or its subsidiaries and have the authority to determine the advisors' fees and other retention terms. Any director may, subject to the approval of the Chairperson, retain an outside advisor at the expense of the Corporation or the Partnership.

7. EVALUATION OF BOARD, DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

The Board will ensure that an appropriate system is in place to evaluate and perform an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board as a whole (as well as the committees of the Board, and the boards of directors and board committees of the Corporation's subsidiaries) to ensure they are fulfilling their respective responsibilities and duties. In connection with these evaluations, each director will be requested to provide his or her assessment of the effectiveness of the Board and each committee as well as the performance of individual board or committee members. These evaluations should take into account the competencies and skills each member is expected to bring to his or her particular role on a board or committee, as well as any other relevant facts.
